Elements of the Role

This section outlines some of the key elements of the role, which allow this role to be evaluated within the University's structure. It provides an overview of what is expected from the post holder in the day-to-day operation of the role.

Planning and Organising

Working as part of the Technical Team within the Events and Operations Department and reporting to the Theatre Technical Manager, the post holder will organise and prioritise their own work with minimal supervision, ensuring key deadlines and objectives are met, and seeking guidance from their line manager where priorities conflict.

Problem Solving and Decision Making

The post holder will use professional experience, departmental policies, and Health and Safety guidance to provide advice and resolve technical issues, referring only complex or out-of-scope problems to their line manager. They are expected to use initiative and judgement, report on current working methods, and advise their line manager of any issues requiring attention. The impact of incorrect decisions is generally limited to minor service interruptions.

Continuous Improvement

The post holder will seek to enhance the efficiency and quality of service to staff and students by contributing to procedures and processes in collaboration with the Theatre Technical Manager and Lecturers in Sound. They are also expected to maintain and develop their professional skills and sound expertise in line with industry standards.

Accountability

The post holder is responsible for maintaining a safe environment in teaching, performance, production, and other relevant areas, ensuring compliance with Health and Safety requirements. They are expected to provide a high-quality, professional service, as errors or omissions could compromise personal safety or equipment. The post holder is accountable to the Theatre Technical Manager.

Dimensions of the role

The post holder will supervise and mentor GSA students, particularly those on the BA Theatre Production and MA Stage and Production Management programmes. They will support GSA productions, assessments, teaching, and a wide range of other events, including visiting artists, research events, conferences, lectures, and student society activities, contributing to a large and varied annual programme. The role also involves assisting with the maintenance of equipment and consumables, managing the sound budget, advising on larger projects, and supervising freelance staff booked by the Theatre Technical Manager.

Supplementary Information

The post holder may, with guidance, provide informal feedback on students' performance during practical production work, either verbally or in writing, for the attention of the relevant programme or module leaders. They will not be involved in formal assessment processes.
