All staff are expected to:

- Positively support equality of opportunity and equity of treatment to colleagues and students in accordance with the University of Surrey Equal Opportunities Policy.
- Work to achieve the aims of our Environmental Policy and promote awareness to colleagues and students.
- Follow University/departmental policies and working practices in ensuring that no breaches of information security result from their actions.
- Ensure they are aware of and abide by all relevant University Regulations and Policies relevant to the role.
- Undertake such other duties within the scope of the post as may be requested by your Manager.
- Work supportively with colleagues, operating in a collegiate manner at all times.

Help maintain a safe working environment by:

- Attending training in Health and Safety requirements as necessary, both on appointment and as changes in duties and techniques demand.
- Following local codes of safe working practices and the University of Surrey Health and Safety Policy.

Elements of the Role

This section outlines some of the key elements of the role, which allow this role to be evaluated within the University's structure. It provides an overview of what is expected from the post holder in the day-to-day operation of the role.

Planning and Organizing

- The post holder must have a strong attention to detail and accuracy as reporting and the development of reporting form a key aspect of this role. To this end answering ad hoc management information requests and providing monthly, quarterly and annual reports for senior managers is required.
- The post holder is also required to develop and maintain comprehensive information resources for end users. The information provided must be accurate and kept up-to-date. Incorrect, incomplete or out-of-date information could result in delays or errors being made by a wide range of end users.
- The post holder is expected to adopt a methodical approach to their work, planning ahead and using tools and techniques to ensure reports and work outputs are stored in an organized fashion.

Problem Solving and Decision Making

- The post holder will be expected to operate with minimum day-to-day supervision within well-defined guidelines. There is scope for the post holder to apply judgement and initiative when managing their workload, including defining their own short-term priorities clearly in terms of work and schedules, to ensure that key deadlines and objectives are met without supervisory approval.
- The post holder is expected to resolve issues based on their previous experience of similar problems or through making reference to well-established policies, processes and procedures and applying them. They may also be expected to use initiative and judgement to address and resolve more complicated problems and issues by making recommendations for resolution to the PGR Lifecycle Systems Manager.

Continuous Improvement

- The post holder will have the opportunity to be involved in the development and implementation of improvements to the systems underpinning the PGR lifecycle.
- It is the responsibility of the post holder to present and explain their reports and data analyses to a wide range of audiences. Therefore, the post holder must demonstrate a confident communication style and be responsive to the needs of their audience in order to ensure the professional and effective delivery of information.
- To provide systems support for ad hoc projects which fall within the remit of the PGR Lifecycle Manager

Accountability

- The post holder has the freedom to work in a proactive manner and to decide how to achieve the end result, generally based on their own judgment and experience.
- At various levels of the institution, the post holder will be involved in both the pro-active management and reactive support of the PGR Lifecycle Systems. They will have significant involvement in providing user support activity, including user documentation and problem diagnosis and solving. The post holder will be closely supported by the PGR Lifecycle Systems Manager until they develop an appropriate level of specialist expertise that enables them to deal with the majority of these day-to-day problems without the need for reference to others.

Dimensions of the role

- The role is not directly responsible for any staff, however due to their specific experience and knowledge, they are required to provide advice, pass on best practice knowledge and offer some training to PGR Lifecycle data system users. The post holder will also liaise with IT staff in scoping and implementing improvements to Doctoral College systems.
- The post holder will work closely with staff within the Doctoral College, Faculties, Strategic Planning, Finance and the IT Services department.
- The post holder will be responsible for providing senior University staff with PGR data analysis, data trends and management reports. Crucially, this responsibility extends beyond report production to include highlighting trends and exceptions and tailoring reports to stakeholder needs.
- The post holder does not have any budgetary responsibility, however, is expected to have an understanding of IT related and systems development costs if required in enhancing the Doctoral College systems.

Person Specification This section describes the sum total of knowledge, experience & competence required by the post holder that is necessary for standard acceptable performance in carrying out this role.

This Job Purpose reflects the core activities of the post. As the Department/Faculty and the post holder develop, there will inevitably be some changes to the duties for which the post is responsible, and possibly to the emphasis of the post itself. The University expects that the post-holder will recognise this and will adopt a flexible approach to work. This could include undertaking relevant training where necessary.

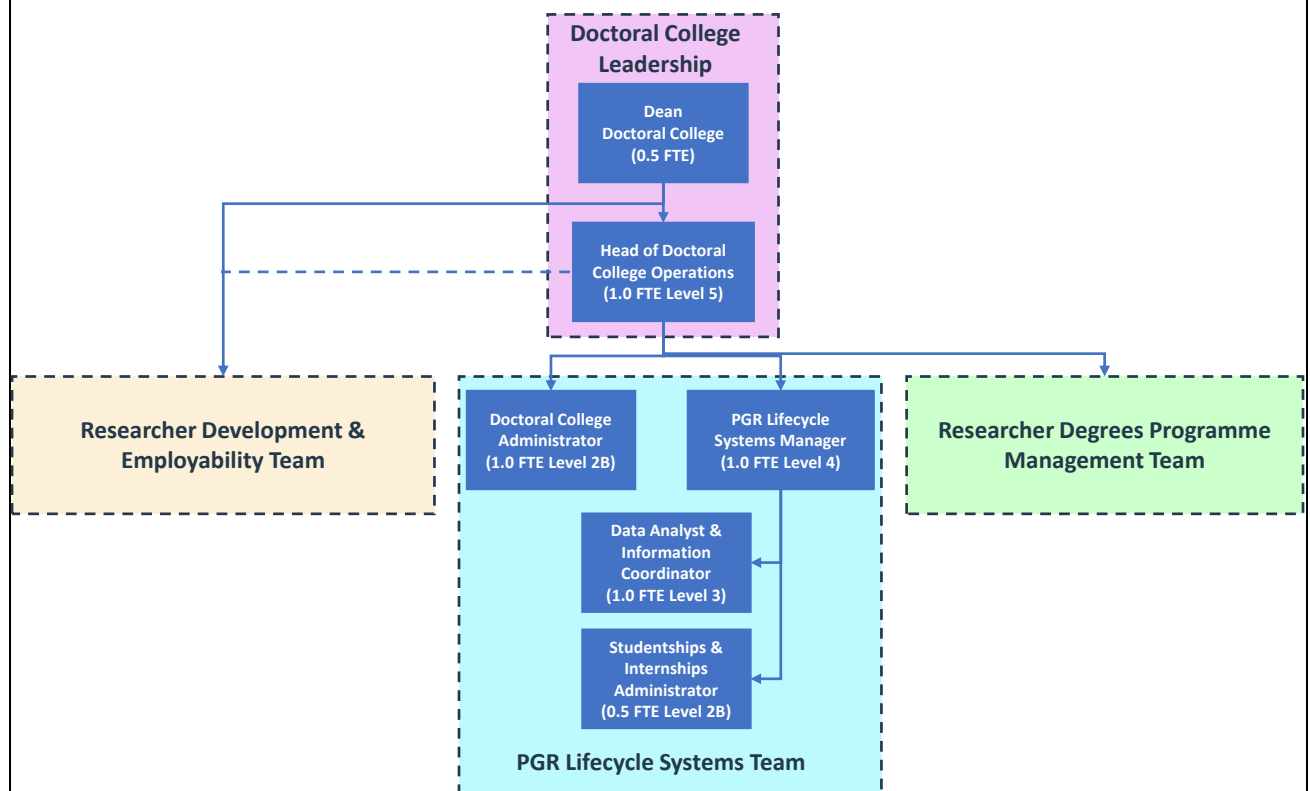

Should significant changes to the Job Purpose become necessary, the post holder will be consulted and the changes reflected in a revised Job Purpose.

Organisational/Departmental Information & Key Relationships

Background Information You should include a short statement on the background of the Faculty and/or the department in which the post holder will be operating. You may also wish to include any other useful information to an applicant e.g. why the project exists, what the strategy of the department is etc.

The Doctoral College is initiating new projects to improve the systems that underpin the PGR Lifecycle to enhance the range of PGR-related data that can be automatically extracted from our systems, the accuracy of those data and the range of analysis that can be performed. This work will continuously improve the efficiency, flexibility and reliability of our information resources and of the support for PGRs, supervisors and senior managers.
